

Remote Work

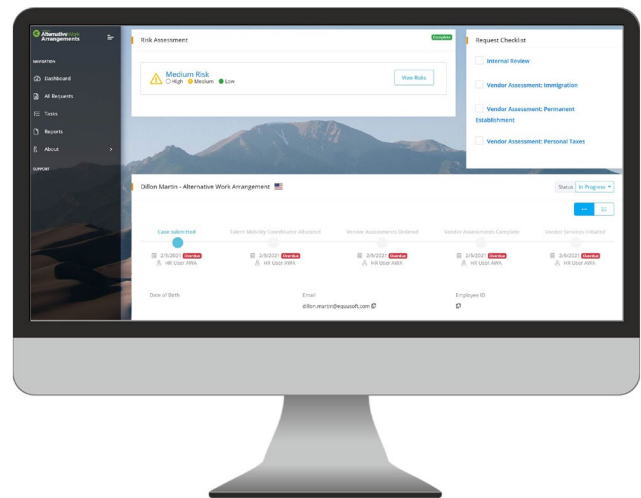

Efficiently Manage Alternative Work Arrangements and Stay Compliant

PinPoint Remote Work is a comprehensive solution that streamlines the process of managing a remote workforce.

- Employees can easily submit requests to adjust hours or to work in a new location.
- Requests are automatically assessed and approved based on risk and company policy.
- Vendor services are automatically initiated for a seamless experience.
- Dashboards provide real-time visibility for smart decision making.

How Does It Work?

PinPoint Remote Work's fast implementation helps companies move from spreadsheets to an automated system in days. The app's intuitive workflows align to bespoke business policies to create a standardized approach for managing remote workers. And, with HRIS integration, businesses have a single source of data for a streamlined and flexible solution.

Why Do I Need It?

With new ways of working becoming the business norm, companies need an efficient and standardized approach to managing alternative work requests. PinPoint Remote Work makes it easy for companies to oversee flexible work arrangements through centralized tracking and data management. With real-time analytics into trends and demographics, PinPoint helps companies efficiently manage their remote workforce and support talent management and planning strategies.

A flexible solution that supports businesses as their workforce evolves.

Enhance Employee Experience

Give employees an easy way to submit requests, view risks, and track approvals.

Reduce Corporate Risk

Minimize risks such as permanent establishment, employment law, and tax.
