Global Mobility Technology Built For Small Programs

AssignmentPro Core is global mobility management solution designed to help small programs move from spreadsheets to an automated platform in days. Covering the complete assignment lifecycle, from preauthorization to compensation, taxes and repatriation, AssignmentPro Core streamlines processes and provides real-time visibility to help improve the experience for mobile employees and business stakeholders alike.

Why Do I Need It?

As global mobility gets more complex, organizations must be agile with instant data access to ensure the safety of their global workforce and support the talent needs of the business. AssignmentPro Core is an affordable solution that quickly transforms mobility programs and eliminates the need for laborious spreadsheets and complex calculation tools. Real-time dashboards provide instant visibility into the entire mobile population for smart decision making and an enhanced employee experience.

How Does It Work?

Pre-configured for fast implementation, AssignmentPro Core is a simple and secure system that keeps global employees on track and mobility programs running smoothly. Complete with customization tools and best-practice templates, AssignmentPro Core supports bespoke business requirements for things such as assignment letters, common messages, compensation calculations, and cost estimates. And, with vendor and HRIS integration, businesses can connect their entire ecosystem to centralize data and drive efficiencies.
